MEMORY'S TRAIL presented by the Class of 1949
of Hilliards High School
Hilliards, Ohio

ANNUAL STAFF

FOREWORD

The pages of this edition of Memory's Trail were compiled with this one thought in mind:

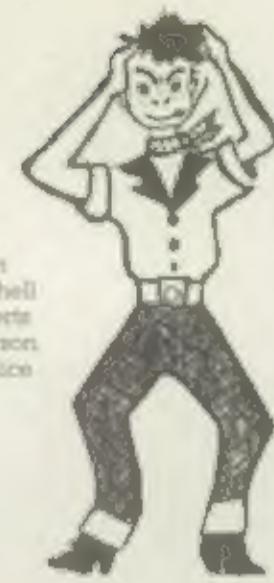

No matter how rough or rocky the path of life may be, may you always be able to look back with pride and pleasure upon your trail of memories.

STUDENTS CREED

"I, of my own accord, place upon myself the solemn duty of observing honesty, loyalty, truthfulness, and good sportsmanship at all times, in relation to my teachers, schoolmates and friends. I will be honest in all my work, loyal to all that is good and true, courteous in my manner and sportsmanlike in my attitude.

Thereby, I pledge myself to do all in my power to protect and uphold, in every way possible, the good name and the high standards of Hilliards High School.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1949, supposedly being superior to brown brim and beret, proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

To the Seventh grade we leave our poise and dignity.

To the Eighth grade we leave our good behavior in study halls.

To the Freshmen goes our all around sports ability.

To the Sophomores goes our love for our teachers.

To the Juniors we leave our seats in the balcony.

Anviling of a jacket in Hiltz's H. G. N. Co. after the graduation of the class of "49" is presented with all respect to the faculty

I, Joann Holland, leave to Joe Martin my love for blonde bangs.

CLASS PROPHECY — 1949

It's almost time for the Homecoming Basketball game to start between Hilliards and Worthington. The year is 1959 Just think! We've been out of school ten years. A lot of territory has certainly been covered

Wayne Montague and Dick Windle are the referees for the game. Strange how Hilliards always seems to win when they referee the game

Joan Krohn is principal of Hilliards. Louise Davis is the Home Economics advisor and Jim Rice is the Coach

Jim's wife, the former Lois Alder, is sitting with Betty and Pid Walker in the balcony, ready for the big game

Cordis Montgomery is here but Theresa just couldn't make it. Their three children keep them pretty busy

Peggy Brashear is making a picture in Hollywood, so she couldn't come tonight. Don Upperman is directing the movie and Branch Vencill is her press agent Bob Barnett and Don Sheeders, those navy guys, are home on leave so they are at the game also. They joined the navy to see the world and find themselves a girl. They saw the world but what about the girls?

Nancy Growdon is at home studying tonight. She is a professor of Fine Arts at the Ohio State University. Carl Shambaugh is also teaching at the University

Tom Lamb is the man to see if you need your car washed in a hurry at Lamb's Service Station in Rome. Violet Salzgaber is teaching the first grade at Rome. They even managed to get their jobs close together

Margie Pendleton liked her job at the grade school so much that she is now employed as Mr. Moore's private secretary

Homer Busick and Joe Pumphrey are partners in the "We'll Get You In The End" Funeral Home

Carlene Hamilton is the one to see if you need a quick loan. She is the "YES WOMAN" at the Personal Finance Company Louigena Delewese is the owner of the Gloria Night Club. Virginia Weldon and Betty Bandy are the hat check girls while Alva McFarland is the head waiter. They couldn't come to the game tonight as they had to be on hand to take care of the after game crowd.

The former Frances Slone and her sailor husband, Bob Mayer, who is home on leave, are here cheering wildly for Hilliards.

Helen Tillman, Pauline Spear, Gladys Prince, and Marian Goodyear are working in the Marshall Field Department Store in New York. They are strictly career girls

AS WE WERE

1. Lois Alder	11. Iva Spencer	21. Peggy Brashear
2. Nancy Growdon	12. Bob Edwards	22. Margie Pendleton
3. Wayne Montague	13. Phyllis Armstrong	23. Mary Bellasari
4. Pauline Spear	14. Paul Armstrong	24. Frances Slone
5. Wanda Reed	15. Joann Holland	25. Bob Wilder
6. Joan Love	16. Dick Windle	26. Marjorie Eiterman
7. Blanche Pennington	17. Jean Hoffman	27. Don Upperman
8. Louise Davis	18. Joan Hoffman	28. Virginia Weldon
9. John Landis	19. Betty Parker	29. Dolores Sherwood
10. Dorothy Taylor	20. Susie White

Dorothy Taylor is Editor in Chief of the Hillards Times. Marjorie Eiterman writes the love-lorn column and Helen Franchini is the society editor. Dick Wilcox is covering tonight's game for the Times.

Wanda Reed is the one to see if you want your hair bleached. She is the owner of the Instant Beauty Shop. Harry Casterino is the manicurist. They worked so hard getting the girls ready to come to the game tonight, that they were too tired to come themselves.

Norma Hackworth and Marianna Liggett have taken up the occupation of farmers' wives. They seem to be very happy in their new careers.

Walter Hoffman is in Washington working very hard at his new job of Secretary of Agriculture. Eugene Feinberg is also in Washington taking Waters' dictation. Joe Voltz, James Moe and Gene Byers are inventing new types of farm machinery.

Bob Edwards is the criminal lawyer you've been hearing so much about. He's in the books now with his intention to guess hunting clues for his next case. John Hoffman is his assistant and Susie White is his little blonde Secretary.

Jean Hoffman is owner of the Red Bird's Baseball team. Bob Wilder is the pitcher and Geno Moro has become a professional golfer.

Betty Wightsel is a cartoonist for Walt Disney and Shirley Schatz is designing costumes for MGM.

Jackie Rhoades and Pat Sheets, now Mr. and Mrs., are working on interior decorating. Jackie has the ideas and Pat does the work.

Norma Matthews is an intern at White Cross Hospital in Hilliard and Joan Love is a head nurse. Jean Early and Catherine Vaughn are the dieticians and Ted Salisbury is the head janitor.

John Landis and Jerry McDowell own their own garage and are quite expert in their field. If your car doesn't run too well, take it to them and they'll see to it that it doesn't run at all.

Dolores Newwood owns her own bookstore and Nancy Ford is conducting speech classes for those who don't have that "Bostonian Touch."

Paul Armstrong is the general practitioner in Hilliard and Phyllis is his office nurse.

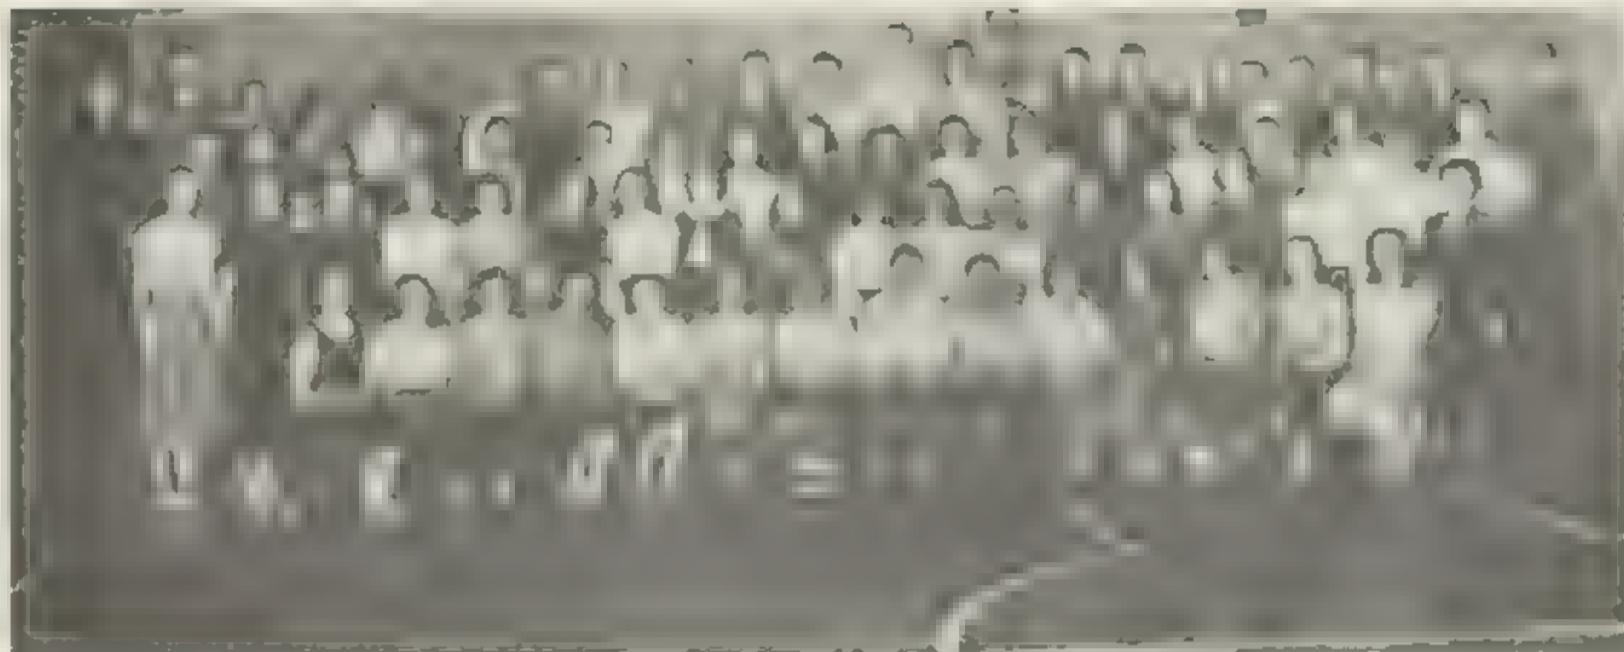

Carol Kemper is a speedy typist for Lazarus and Ivy Spencer is selling ladies' "ready to wear" on the third floor.

Mary Bellisari is now Mrs. Johnston and is living in a cute little three-room apartment while Joann Holland is teaching their children in grade school.

Lynn Ragsdale is also becoming a farmer's wife but Jean Toy and Margaret Gemeinhardt are still looking for their certain someone. In their spare time they have office jobs at the First Bank. They also came to the game tonight to cheer for Hilliards. Oh, yes. We won the game.

1948 FOOTBALL CHAMPS

Hilliards' battling Wildcats, under the able leadership of Coaches Fahrenholz, and Swope, and Captains Wilcox and Lamb, finished their 1948 Football Campaign with their second straight Championship of the County League. Every member of the league was required to play six of the eleven league members. Hilliards defeated all six, but tied with Mifflin for the league Championship. However, in a non-league post season game, Hilliards defeated Mifflin easily, 19-0, to have a total season record of 7 wins and 1 loss.
